THE RESIDENCE

A residence of exceptional scale

Set between vineyards and the Black Forest, this substantial country residence occupies a quiet and private setting near Sasbachwalden. Built in 2010, the property combines expansive living areas, six bedrooms, an approximately 70 m² conservatory, pool and sauna with unusually generous grounds. Large windows, a tiled stove, gallery and refined timber details shape its character.

VINEYARD SETTING

RESIDENCE

01 LIVING & DINING

Light, warmth and generous proportions

The expansive living and dining area opens towards the garden through generous glazing. A traditional tiled stove creates warmth and atmosphere. The near-open-plan kitchen includes an inviting breakfast nook, while the conservatory adds a bright year-round living space. More recent parquet flooring, light timber and integrated spotlights underline the quality of the interior.

02 BEDROOMS & BATHROOMS

Six bedrooms across three levels

The upper floor houses the generous principal suite with adjacent dressing room and private bathroom. Three further bedrooms and an independently accessible bathroom offer flexibility for family, guests or home working. On the ground floor, a separate guest suite with its own bedroom and bathroom adds privacy. The converted attic studio can serve as an atelier, retreat or additional principal suite.
